"Point Of View"

They've got the innocents
They've got the guilties
So many reasons have come to my mind
Reliability
Within the distress
Some of the principles of people in this time

The politicians
Inside the government
Are getting power right inside our home
Let's be suspicious
And be intelligent
To vote in someone that is the right one

So, why don't you talk now to me
Tell me that you're not the one
So, why don't you talk now to me
Tell me the truth, that you're a robber

Oh, let me see what I'm losing my friend
Oh, let me see the regrettable environment
Oh, let me see what I'm losing my friend
I'm coming to my point of view
(I'm here just to tell you what is my point of view)

I just want to walk away
Don't know what to say
I'll say what I know
They're tapping and listening my telephone
So, tell me the truth, that you're a robber

They're coming in
They're coming into the society
