Here I am sitting in this room
Singing my song and I can't help thinking of you
And the love we'll share

Do you think that we have already met?
Maybe shared a waiter or flown on the same jet
Now, are we to know?
We're just going with the flow

Where are you now and what are you doing?
What is the color of your hair?

Tell me, what is your name?
These are things I'd love to know about you, but I guess I'll have to wait

Maybe she is listening to this song
Maybe she knows all the words and is singing along
But I doubt it, somehow I just doubt it Ohh

She could be sitting somewhere in this room Probably staring out the window, thinking of all she could be doing
Instead of listening to this guy.
Oh, please come out of hiding and tell me

Where are you now and what are you doing?
And what is the color of your hair and tell me what is your name?
These are things I'd love to know about you,
but I guess I'll have to wait

Tell me where are you now and what are you doing?
And what is the color of your hair and tell me what is
your name?
These are things I'd love to know about you,
but I guess I'll have to wait

Where are you now and what are you doing?
And what is the color of your hair and tell me what is your name?

These are things I'd love to know about you,
but I guess I'll have to wait

I guess I'll have to wait
Ohh, yeah
