I toss and turn and reel inside my head
Search for answers but wind up one lost instead
Black and white, but this looks like red Determining if it's love I fear or fear itself I dread
Is this all I know?

CHORUS:

Cus I'm one step away from lover
And I'm one step away from a friend
And I've been hiding myself under covers
Waiting for the end

I close my eyes and step into the dark Dropping bread crumbs so when the time comes I can run back to my heart
Left to right, swaying back and forth
Oh what I would give to tell you what I'm in this for
Is this all I know?

Cus I'm one step away from lover
And I'm one step away from a friend
And I've been hiding myself under covers
Waiting for the end

And I know you know how much I love to tell you every day
I'm sorry I invited your heart to come out and play
Out to play

Cus I'm one step away from lover
And I'm one step away from a friend
And I've been hiding myself under covers
Hiding myself under covers
Hiding myself under covers
