What's your name?
Just tell me where you can be found
My name is Love
I can't be found, no

Then name your cost
Then let me pay; my time is short
My name is love
I can't be bought, no

When everything inside
Ups and changes allies
Where everything else has died
My name is love
My name is love
My name is love, love, love

All I say
My life has changed in many ways
If your name is love
Show me some grace, yeah

When everything you know
Falls apart when the wind blows
When everything seems so tough
My name is love
My name is love, ohhh
My name is love, love

And the water is flowing up
Up the mountain which you choose
Is it you that's clouding me?
Is it me that's clouding you?
You....

When everything you know
Falls apart when the wind blows
When everything else has died
My name is love, love, love
My name is love, love, love
My name is love, love, love
My name is love, love, love

My name is love, love, love
Love, love, love
Love, love, love.
