Mmm

You gotta hold your head up..

Oahh-eahh-oh-ahh, oahh-eahh-oh-ahh

Oahh-eahh ahh-ahh

Oahh-eahh-oh-ahh-oh-ahh-oh-ahh-ahhhh

Oahh-eahh-oh-ahh, oahh-eahh-oh-ahh

Oahh-eahh-oh-ahh

[Guru]

Yo.. just because I want to it don't mean I will

And just because I'm angry it don't mean I'd kill

And just because she looks good it don't mean I'd hit it

And just because I'm horny, it don't mean I'm widdit

Just because I make records, don't mean that I'm gassed

And just because I'm rappin, don't mean I chase ass

Just because I'm whylin don't mean I can't stop

I got discipline baby, and I use it a lot

People, here's somethin that you should be considerin

Things could turn bitter when, you don't use discipline

You might wake up the next day, upset and in fear

Buggin out, yappin bout, 'How the f**k did I get here?

Who the hell is this stranger, starin all in my face?'

Now you wishin you hadn't positioned yourself, in that place

Think just in case you shoulda took more precaution

A good time can become a nightmare so often

Like this nigga I know, that met these chicks on tour

They rocked him to sleep, robbed his as* for cash galore

Skated off in the night, without a trace or a hint

Scheamin tantalizin him, dressed up in lace and shit

Caught that kid out there, all high and dumbfounded

Made him think he was gettin some pussy

He just knew he was gonna pound it

Situations like this, will make you think twice

That's why instead of preachin death in my songs, I breathe life

Baby won't you take the time (take the time)

Let me know what's on your mind (your mind)
Just because I'm yours don't make it right
(don't make it right)
Baby won't you take the time (bay-bee..)
Let me know what's on your mind (I'm waiting..)
Slow down baby now let's make it right (on your love..)
(I like you..)

[Guru]

Tycoon thug, he made a ten thousand dollar investment
Now he's not to be messed with, makes the girls get undressed quick
He's on some big muscled chest shit, posted by the exit
That's my man, he's the owner, yeah he be on some next shit
Said we'll make a few million by the next millenium
Told me to keep droppin jewels like a triggerman, puttin lead in him
Like Flavor said, I tell these hoes to, kill the noise
You know your Pops told you, watch them New York boys

All night, the ladies be like up in my mug

Tranquilin and trance dancin up in my drug Fly honies, they hold me down like always
The same cat that used to get blunted down in the hallways
I love the cutie pies, never the zootie pies
I got discipline, I want the crew to rise
Situations like this'll make you think twice
Instead of preachin death in my songs, I breathe life

Baby won't you take the time (uh-huh)
Let me know what's on your mind (your mind)
Just because I'm yours don't make it right
(don't make it right)
Baby won't you take the time (bay-bee..)

Ladies, here's somethin that we should be considerin
Things could get bitter when, you don't use discipline
Imaginin yourself livin lavish and plush Hangin with the cat who be spendin cabbage and buyin stuff

However, don't be too clever with your endeavor
And don't let too many men, receive your treasure
Most cats, be thinkin with they bozack
I admit in the past I was tryin to break these hoes backs
Escape, without givin up a dime
You know them fly ladies had a good f**kin time
Coppin me some Timberland with a jacket to match it
Girls nowadays wanna pigeon for chickenscratch
And I ain't givin up nathan long as my game expands, it's my discipline to hate
'em
Situations like this, will make you think twice
That's why instead of preachin death in my songs, I
breathe life
And just because I want to it don't mean I will
And just because I'm angry it don't mean I'd kill
And just because she looks good, it don't mean I'd hit it
And just because I'm horny, it don't mean I'm widdit
Just because I make records, don't mean that I'm
gassed
And just because I'm rappin, don't mean I chase ass
And just because I'm whylin, don't mean I can't stop
I got discipline baby whether you do or not
