Just like we told ya
Our love is better than their love
We could make you famous
Why don't you come and join us?

You don't need anyone to know
That you exist
You don't want anyone to know
You can't resist

All this time, all those prayers
All this hanging around
All these hopes, all these fears
All this, all this

Our love is better than their love
We could give you more love
There's not enough of
This thing called love, love

Do you believe that love will make
Everything alright?
Do you believe stars disappear
When it gets light?

All these dreams, all these lies
All that sleeping around
More receptions, empty rooms
All this, all this

Our love is better than their love
We could make you famous
Why don't you come and join us?
Why don't you come and join us?

Why don't you come and join us?
Why don't you come and join us?

Aren't we cruel?
Isn't it all so cruel?
The things we do with love
And the things we do without love

You don't need anyone to know
(All this time, all those prayers)
That you exist
(All this hanging around)
You don't want anyone to know
(All these hopes, all these fears)
You can't resist
(All this, all this)

Just like we told ya
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)
Our love is better than their love
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)

We could make you famous
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)
Why don't you come and join us?
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)

Why don't you come and join us?
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)
Why don't you come and join us?
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)

Why don't you come and join us?
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)
Why don't you come and join us?
(If you want love, you got it, you got love, you want it)
