Out of love
You don't know
How to go through this time
Out of dreams
You've drowned them in wine
Just like something
Has turned off your light

Sleepless nights - wasted days
Lonely fights - all the way
Isn't easy for you to survive
But still there's something inside
That keeps you alive

Raise your hands
And try to feel the love forever
Raise your hands
Be your friend - your own friend

All the time
You search for some faith
But no one on earth seemed to care
All your love has turned into hate
Towards the world
That is just so unfair

Lonely nights - lonely days
Endless lies - unheard prayers
Isn't easy for you to survive
But there's a will deep inside
That keeps you alive (try to find)

[Chorus]

If you don't love yourself
Then tell me who should do
You gotta trust
The soul you're related to
Life is just a fading star
It's going too fast

So free your soul
It's time

[Chorus]
