Oh, beautiful love
You don't bother me
I don't need your time
Your company

And now, that it's over
And I'm strong enough to see
You used to move the mountains, baby
But now you just don't move me

People say when you're lonely
You're after the first one you see
I remember a long time ago
That used to be me

I'm glad that it's over
And I'm strong enough to see
You used to move the mountains, baby
But now you just don't move me

You know that love
Can be such a sweet thing
That we all get messed
Up with sometime

People lose a lot of sleep over a
Simple way to solve their problems
But I'm not worried
'Cause I've solved mine

Oh, beautiful love
Now, that I'm finally free
I won't be around for
You to hurt me

I'm so glad, it's all over
And I'm strong enough to see
You used to move the mountains, baby
But now you just don't move me

No, you won't hurt me
No
