I get chills when I think back to
The times when we
Were hurtin' one another

And look back on that now
And it's good to know
That we've found some sacred ground

Sometimes like a storm
It was cold and rainy but we got by

We lost years trying to find it
How in the world did we survive?

It almost died

And if we protect our love
There's a chance that we might
Make it last forever

And if we wait too long
There's a chance that we may never know
If love goes passing by

What about starting something new?
Just the two of us, baby
Got an awful lot to do

It don't matter who was wrong
'Cause I know we can make it
Right now we've got to stay strong

At times I know that it
It won't easy but we'll get by

It's much too late to walk away
And say goodbye, and let our love die

And if we protect our love
There's a chance that we might
Make it last forever

The past is dead, the past is gone
Why take a chance that we may never know?
If love goes passing by

And time wouldn't change a thing
Oh, no, it'd be a shame if we don't try
And time wouldn't change a thing
No, if love goes passing by
Oh, no, mmm
