"God of Light"

Visit "God of Light" on MotoLyrics.com

How does it feel when you're dead inside
Lost someone to the other side
Felt so bad 'cause you didn't cry
Couldn't shed a tear cause you're dead inside

How does it feel when you're cold inside
Emptiness constant at your side
Freezing ever secret thought you hide
Motionless, frozen hell design

How does it feel when you're lost and blind
Loneliness is your only guide
And how does it feel when you're black inside
Numbness calls from your inner eye
