"Power Of Darkness"

Rape the garden of infernal delights
Rack our body on the left and right
Like your floating on a river of pain
Thirsty knife and the hungry brain
Rip your body on the left and right
Take your body to another plane
Rape the garden of infernal delights
Wrap the snake in between your legs
You want the power of darkness
You want it thrust inside
You want the power of rebellion
You want it thrust inside
You want the power of dissention
You want it thrust inside
You want the power of darkness
It cannot be denied
That darkness is the power in light
Cannot be denied
That darkness is the power of light
Blessed be the black
