did my time among the creeps did my time among the thieves did my time among the scores did my time among the whores did my time among the bless'd walked among the living dead searching up and down this world doing things you've never heard down in the belly of the beast I lie all I save is my

down in the belly of the beast I lie
all I save is my
pain

did my time among the lost paying such a heavy cost did my time among the cruel laying w/ the broken fools did my time among the slaves walked around their waiting graves did my time among the lies watching as they slowly die did my time among the strong some are here and some are gone did my time among the cursed praying that my brain would burst

walked upon their living graves

all I save is my
all I save is my
pain [repeat]
