

Robert Palmer

"Found You Now"

Visit "Found You Now" on MotoLyrics.com

I know that you already take as read
I helped you and lost the back of my hand
I wished that we were enchanted
Girl now I take if for granted

Your love was staring me right in the heart
Why does our pride make us wait
While I was wondering where to start
You were there to show me all I had to learn

We were way off the mark
Must have been in the dark
Found you now

Finding light in the ease
With which we reach indecision
I guess we lived in the meantime
'Till we remembered our first lines

We must have missed our turn
Still got a lot to learn
Found you now

So now we live a life of give and take
Day by day we don't control where it leads us
If we compare the first day we met
I must admit nothing's changed
I recognize only one regret

Life's embarrassments, unexpressed
Found you now, I've found you now
Found you now, I've found you now

Visit Robert Palmer page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.