I am the final silence
The last electrician alive
And they called me the sparkle
I was the best
I worked them all

New ways, new ways
I dream of wires

We opened doors by thinking
We went to sleep by dialing "0"
We drove to work by frontseat
I plugged my wife in just for show

New ways, new ways
I dream of wires

So I press c for comfort
I dream of wires, the old days

New ways, new ways
I dream of wires

New ways, new ways
I dream of wires

New ways, new ways
I dream of wires

I am the final silence
The last electrician alive
And they called me the sparkle
I was the best
I worked them all

New ways, new ways
I dream of wires
