"A Sudden Change"

A sudden change has brought over the breeze
And i'm cold for the first time in months
Keep me warm with your kiss
Keep me warm with your smile and your presence tonight
Please give me one last chance
To prove myself
To prove my heart to you
I'm crying out to be in your arms again

Sudden change has brought over the breeze
These lonely nights are getting old to me (old to me)
Staying quiet is the only way to keep from crying
Because i only think of you

Please give me one last chance
To prove myself
To prove my heart to you
I'm crying out to be in your arms again

Please give me one last chance
To prove myself
To prove my heart to you
I'm crying out to be in your arms again

(W0o0o0o00o0o0)
Please give me one last chance
To prove myself
To prove my heart to you
(W0o0Ooo0o0o0o0)
I'm crying out to be in your arms again
