Hopes drift in higher places
It's easier above the gloom
Among the hollow faces
I know you're there, it must be soon

And I must straighten up
Review my disposition
Pour the hope back in my eyes
I thought I'd lost so long ago

Come into my life
Here where nothing matters
Come into my life
And roll away the gloom

Come into my life
Here where nothing matters
Come into my life
And roll away the gloom, oh

Always a love and beauty
A lover's sighs content too soon
Somewhere behind her heartbeat
A breath of kindness hints of gloom

So I must straighten up
Review my disposition
Pour the hope back in my eyes
I thought I'd lost so long ago

Come into my life
Here where nothing matters
Come into my life
And roll away the gloom

Come into my life
Here where nothing matters
Come into my life
And roll away the gloom

Oh when you get there, well, you know
Oh, yeah, I wanna be there

Oh yeah, ah-you get there, well, you know
Oh yeah, I wanna be there, yeah
I wanna be there, I wanna be there
Take it on, take it on

Oh yeah, when you get there, well, you know
Oh, I wanna be there
Oh, when you get there, well, you know
Oh, I wanna be there
I wanna be there, I wanna be there, oh oh

Come into my life
Here where nothing matters
Come into my life
And roll away the gloom

Come into my life
Come into my life

Come into my life
Come into my life
And roll away, roll away

Come on, come on, come on, baby
Come on, come on, come on, baby
Come on, come on, come on, baby
And roll away, roll away, roll away

Hopes drift in, higher places
It's easier above the ground you know
Hopes are drifting, hearts been lifting
Somebody somewhere no, done you wrong
I don't know, ah no no, no no no

Come on, come on, come on, baby
Come on, come on, come on, baby
Come on, come on, come on, baby
