Last night as I was laying down and thinking
I was wondering about the road that lies ahead
In my mind I heard the wisdom of the master
Hey Robert, those dreams are only in your head

Last night as I was dreaming about the future
Living out my time the days and years ahead
I was moving with the mighty rearranger
I was thinking about the wisdom that he said

Mighty rearranger
Oh, ever mighty rearranger
Oh, mighty rearranger
Yeah yeah yeah yeah, mighty rearranger

Last night as I was walking with an angel
Sweet talking and romancing in my mind
I live my life, I know it's filled with danger
She tell me, "Daddy, good love is hard to find"

Mighty rearranger
Oh baby, mighty rearranger
Mighty rearranger
Oh, mighty rearranger

Last night well, I came upon a stranger
He smiled at me and this is what he said
If you're troubled send your mind out on vacation
But let it wander like the wild geese in the west
Oh yeah
Let it wander like the wild geese in the west

Mighty rearranger
Oh, mighty
Mighty rearranger, oh oh oh
Mighty rearranger, oh
