Once I had myself a good woman
But I just didn't treat her right
I was always leavin' a party life
Livin' a party life

True love was waitin' for me
I was much too blind to see
Til she told me she would leave me
I said that's all right with me

Oh, now she's gone
Realized I lost the best thing there is
And my pride keeps tellin' me
Let your loss be your lesson

Heaven knows I miss her lovin'
Heaven knows how much I cry
Just to think that she had left me
And I know the reason why

I could tell she had been cryin'
It didn't seem to bother me
Cause I know there's no one blinder
Than a fool who just couldn't see

Oh, now she's gone
I realized I lost the best thing there is
And my pride keeps tellin' me
Let your loss be your lesson

Let your loss be your lesson
