Sitting here thinking about the times we shared
The love you gave so freely lets me know you care
In spite of all the things we've been through I know it was only a test
And now I wish that you were here with me to cure my lonliness
I'll just smile when I think about all the good times
I just smile when I think about all the joy you bring
When I think about how you touched my life
And how you set my spirit free
I just smile when I think about all you've done for me
I never knew before we met what love actually could do for me
And when we were together I saw how strong I could be
With all the space between us I still feel you are here
And all the love that's in my heart keeps you near
