Believe me, I believe everything you say.
Even if you claimed you heard a ghost sing songs.
I think I know what you do when I'm away,
but believe me I'll believe they were simple mistakes.

I've been worn away by birthday memories and
galleries
of pictures in my head of you when I'm away.

maybe we can make this space to talk about it,
forget about it for now.
It seems so hard to do.
There's a constant pain in my head
caused by sights I'd rather forget
I hope this time it will fade away.

I've been worn away by birthday memories and
galleries
of pictures in my head of you when I'm away.
I'd do anything to keep this fear from flowing through my veins. I'd stay awake and fret just for you.

I'll stay awake and fret just for you.
I'll stay awake and fret just for you.
I'll stay awake and fret just for you.
I'll stay awake and fret just for you.
