Take care, take care now mother.
This tiger's been tamed with cigarettes and warm gin.
(Oh, never have enough, never have enough)
Lets decorate the cage with blinds.
Somethings, somethings should be kept from innocent
eyes.
Yeah, eyes of the beasts are hungry but so spineless.

Does it hurt when you breathe?
Do you pray in your sleep to entertain?
It's Christmas day tomorrow so I'm begging,
Please can we go to sleep? oh

Separate the coward and the curse, you won't change.
It's not like we have anything that's left to lose.
So come on come on lets be brave.
Separate the coward and the curse, you won't change.
Say a little prayer then we'll say there's no one here to blame.

Dust here is tangled in the air.
Decorate the cage that's kept clean with blinds.
Somethings, somethings should be kept from innocent
eyes.
Yeah, eyes of the beasts are hungry but so spineless.

Does it hurt when you breathe?
Do you pray in your sleep to entertain?
It's Christmas day tomorrow so I'm begging,
Please can we go to sleep? oh

Separate the coward and the curse, you won't change.
It's not like we have anything that's left to lose.
So come on come on lets be brave.
Separate the coward and the curse, you won't change.
Say a little prayer then we'll say there's no one here to blame.

Separate from the spineless.
Separate from the spineless.

Separate the coward and the curse, you won't change.

It's not like we have anything that's left to lose.
So come on come on lets be brave.
Separate the coward and the curse, you won't change.
Say a little prayer then we'll say there's no one here to blame.
