I see you look down again,
The way that you always do.
How may times will I say you're beautiful,
Before you know that it's true.
I don't know why you can't see,
The girl the mirror shows to me.
I've seen your eyes when you look at yourself,
And you don't like what you see,
I find that hard to believe.

How can you say that you're not beautiful?
Who filled your head with those lies?
The angels loose their breath when you walk in,
They see the heaven in your eyes.

How can you look in your heart,
And not see the same things that I do?
Some body told you some things in your past,
You can't just let them come true,
There no reflection on you.

How can you say that you're not beautiful?
Who filled your head with those lies?
The angels loose their breath when you walk in,
They see the heaven in your eyes.

I hope you know that you put this look upon my face,
You're the reason for my smile

How can you say that you're not beautiful?
Who filled your head with those lies?
The angels loose their breath when you walk in,
They see the heaven in your eyes.

I don't know why you can't see,
The girl the mirror shows to me.
