Ooooh oh, yeah yeah yeah
Ooooh oh, yeah yeah.

Hook:

I know that you and I supposed to be
(We don't have to wait,
One more day and night.)
Is there something so familiar,
The way this feels.
(We don't have to wait,
We don't have for another life.)

And it feels so good.
That look you give me when I
Say the wrong thing,
But you surrender when you left me
Hold you.
I'm telling you I'll keep on having this strong genes,
Baby, baby, baby uuuh now
You mamma put that work
She raised you
And kinda puts it perfectly when she
Made you, uuuh.
I'm telling you I'll on loving these strange dreams
Baby, baby, baby uuuh now.

Hook:

I know that you and I supposed to be
(We don't have to wait,
One more day and night.)
Is there something so familiar,
The way this feels.
(We don't have to wait,
We don't have to give up life.)
I know they say the good things
Come to those who wait.
(We don't have to wait,
One more day and night.)
But another minute out
Is I can take.
(We don't have to wait,

For another life.)

Struggling? got some strong genes.
All that sweetness stripped in
When they moved you.
I'm telling you I'll keep on having these love dreams,
Baby, baby, baby uuuh now
They say the love can lift you up from above this
Whenever comes to trouble
That's my goal to, yes it is.
Since you're laying next to me, you
Know just what that means
Baby, baby, baby uuuh now.

But another minute out
Is I can take.
(We don't have to wait,
For another life.)
I know that you and I supposed to be
We don't have to wait,
We don't have to die.
Is there something so familiar,
The way this feels.
(We don't have to wait,
We don't have to give up life.)
I know they say the good things
Come to those who wait.
(We don't have to wait,
One more day and night.)
But another minute out
Is I can take.
(We don't have to wait,
For another life baby).
