Settle down love, for a minute
I wanna take you by the hand and hold you
Ive waited so many nights
Just to see you
And I wanna take all my problems out on you

See I can do better than make love to you
Better than make you say my name
Please, please, please
Oh dont you make me have to beg
I need love love love love love
I need love love love love love

Angel wont you slow down

Seems like youre always packing and unpacking again
And I know that the hardest thing is to please you
You would bring most men to their knees

I can do better than make love to you
Better than make you scream my name
Please please please
Ohh dont you make me have to beg
Cause I need love love love love love
I need love love love love
