We're the new generation
The new generation
And we believe now
We believe (we believe)

(We believe)

It's a televised revolution
We want democracy
We fight all the pressure
We tired of murder and grief
We want our freedom
Like the Statue of Liberty
We want to see our children
Live better than you and me
The whole city is a dance floor
(Huh) It's a celebration
For the whole world to see
Things are really changing
From Africa to Asia
Through Europe cross the seas
Everybody's got they hand up
And nobody's on their knees

And the bombs will stop flying
And we gaze a quiet sky
And we stand in love and wonder
At the miracle gone by
And it ain't like it used to be
Cause it's better than it was

We're the new generation
We believe in us (we believe)
We believe in us (we believe)
We're the new new We believe in us
The new generation

Now we're sharing our money
Now we helping tough lives
Now we calling up our brothers
Saying I apologize
Love is stronger than eternity

Love's in every baby's eyes
We crawling outta that dirty gutta
With tuxedos on your mind
You want a glass of champagne
You want it paid for by the pain
Shout your national anthem
For all your countrymen that died in vain
You're the new prince ruler
The red dog Cairo king
An international inspiration
The number one topic most trending

And now the bombs will stop flying
And we gaze a quiet sky
And we stand in love and wonder
At the miracle gone by
And it ain't like it used to be
Cause it's better than it was

We're the new generation
We believe in us (we believe)
We believe in us (we believe)
We're the new new We believe in us
The new generation

Now you can't get between us
We're connected like mother and child
It's a world wide network
You better logon before you die
Cause the old god is over
And the new ray is baptized
And now we're storming through the palace
Singing, dancing, you know why
Waving peace flags on the balcony
Yeah we just changed history
And we all joined hands
And thank god for listening

And the bombs will stop flying
And we gaze a quiet sky
And we stand in love and wonder
At the miracle gone by
And it ain't like it used to be
Cause it's better than it was

We're the new generation
We believe in us (we believe)
We believe in us (we believe)
We believe in us (we believe)
We believe in us (we believe)
We believe in us (we believe)

We're the new new We believe in us
The new generation
