Dressed in cotton, ready for bed
I asked my dad to kiss my head
Daddy, thanks for lovin me. Now I'm tired and I'm going to sleep.

Dressed in wonder woman underwear
Spinnin circles in the summer air
Pickin green beans and shuckin' corn
W/my family's love to keep me warm.

You can dress me up or you can dress me down,
Put me in a satin gown
And I'll be the girl I was before
Nothin' less and nothin more.

Dressed in cut-off blue-jean shorts
Riding bare-back on my big, black horse.
I still remember how it feels
With his coat on my legs and on my heels

Dressed in flannel and blue jeans
I was no high-school beauty queen
But I made some friends and my heart got bruised
Trying out love in my tennis shoes.

You can dress me up or you can dress me down,
Put me in a satin gown
And I'll be the girl I was before.
Nothing less, nothing more.

Dressed in satin and white lace
You should have seen my mother's face
How she loved her little girl
Nothing less, nothing more.

You can dress me up or you can dress me down
Put me in a satin gown.
And I'll be the girl I was before.
Nothing less, nothing more.

Dressed in cotton, ready for bed
I asked my husband to kiss my head

Baby, thanks for lovin' me.
Now I'm tired and I'm going to sleep.
Now I'm tired and I'm going to sleep.
