You still know

The answers

I used to know

But i can't remember

Inside of you

The universe is so, so beautiful

Outside of me, i forget

I wish that I could slip into your body

Follow your bloodstream to your heart,

And just stay there

And just stay there

Don't you ever, ever, ever

Let me out of your heart

'Cause i will never, ever, ever

Let you out of my heart

In your eyes

So many secrets

In my mind

So many questions

I pray that you will find

Strength to hold on to what you are

What you are

Why do we have to know

To forget

To remember why we came here

Why can't we just stay there

Just stay there

Don't you ever, ever, ever

Let me out of your heart

'Cause I will never, ever, ever

Let you out of my heart

Let you out of my heart

Let you out of my heart

Don't you ever, ever, ever let me out of your heart

Out of your heart
