Will you tell me once again
How we're gonna be just friends
If you're for real and not pretend
Then I guess you can Hang With Me

When My Patience wearing thin
When I'm ready to give in
Will you Pick me up again
Then I guess you can Hang With Me

And if you do me right
I'm gonna do right by you
And if you keep it tight
I'm gonna confide in you

I know what's on your mind
Though they'll be time for that too
If you hang with me
Hang with me

Just don't fall recklessly
Headlessly in love with me
Cause it's gonna be
All heart break
Blissfully painful in insanity
If we agree
You can hang with me

When you see me drift astray
Out of touch and out of place
Will you tell me to my face
Then I guess you can hang with me
And if you do me right
I'm gonna do right by you
And if you keep it tight
I'm gonna confide in you

I know what's on your mind
Though they'll be time for that too
If you hang with me
Hang with me

Just don't fall recklessly
Headlessly in love with me
Cause it's gonna be
All heart break
Blissfully painful in insanity
If we agree
You can hang with me

I know what's on your mind
Though they'll be time for that too
If you hang with me
Hang with me

Just don't fall recklessly
Cause it's gonna be
All heart break
If we agree

Oh whoa
You can hang with me

Hang with me
