My only reason And thats why my only explanation is coz I love u and thats all Love is my only reason and love can make u crazy things Boy I love you and thats all My friends think Im crazy Coz Im running around with u I know they dont have to tell me But they dont know u like I do I do. Youre so impossible so unpredictable But my heart made up my mind It may not make sense Its so irrational, so irresponsible But its making me feel so deep My only reason And thats why my only explanation is coz I love u and thats all, boy I love u Love is my only reason and love can make u crazy things and thats all 3:30 in the morning and youre asking why Im still here?!! My life would probably be safer if you disappear, dont disappear no no Its like a burning flame that stronger in the rain I ask myself why I do this over and over again But with your pain Ill be holding on I still can't walk away until every chance gone My only reason And thats why my only explanation is coz I love u and thats all, boy I love u Love is my only reason and love can make u crazy things and thats all I dont even have a choice, I have no choice This kind of situation has a life of their own Why am I acting this way? So why is my love enough to explain Is just cause. My only reason Love is my only reason and love can make u crazy things And thats why my only explanation is coz I love u and thats all, boy I love u and thats all
