Thoughts about you and me Thinkin' about what we used to be Love was strong so were we Until one day it all went wrong
A new body a new face
But no one good enough to fill your empty space Baby where did our love go I'm thinkin' about you and me now Baby both you and I should know We should know by now

Warming heat coolin' shade Whatever I needed I found in the love we made Maybe this was meant to be Miss and reminisce of something close to extasy
But I still hope that you feel our love inside the way I do Chorus
Thoughts about you and me Thinkin' about what used to be
