I've been here before
Face down on the floor
I love you that's a fact
But you don't love me back

So I bang my head on the wall
You don't change, you don't change at all
Till it bled, I could bang my head
Till it bled

Old habits are hard to shake
The web you weave don't break
Beg or I could choose
Either way I lose you

So I bang my head on the wall
You don't change, you don't change at all
Till it bled, I could bang my head
But your wall don't fall

Miracles might happen
Lightening might strike twice
You might love me one day
But at what price

So I bang my head on the wall
But you don't change, you don't change at all
Till it bled, I could bang my head
Yes, I bang my head on the wall

Hoping you might change
But you don't change at all
Till it bled, I could bang my head, oh
Till it bled, I just bang my head
But your wall don't fall
