I guess i'm a little bit afraid of you
I'm not exactly sure what i should do
Does not seem to be a right or wrong
Sittin by the kitchen table from dusk till dawn

This isn't easy for me
I'm so scared of love
Is there a reason to be
I just can't get tough enough
But i don't want to leave you

One moment is an emergency
I saw you really looking at me
Old memories making me shy
Sittin by the kitchen table the late night sky

All day the next day
Standin still i'm blowin away
I get the feeling whatever i do
I'm gonna be in love with you
