"Out Of The Blue"

You gave me a flower
You gave me a ring
You're making me feel
Like i have everything
Now what i gotta do
Is baby be true

You're making it easy
You're making it fun
You're making me laugh
When the day is all done
True since i love you
I'm out of the blue

And blue is color
I've always been
That's all right...ooo...it's all right
I wasn't asking for any fixing
I came just right out of the blue

You're making me dinner
You're making me sing
You're making me feel
Like i want everything
Yeah, it's an old love song
And i'm humming along

You gave me some purple
You gave me some green
You gave me a chance
To not know what i mean
True since i love you
I'm out of the blue
And blue is the color i've always been...
