Take your time the old man said, you know you'd like to hear this from a fools perspective One more step and I'm sure you'll trip No you didn't see this coming, you didn't see this coming Take a breath, just take a breath now maybe, you'll be fine, we'll be ok, these hills aren't mountains yet, there just lines, we'll be fine Gotta get this right Gotta clear the pressure from my head
I can't believe I've done these things I'm afraid to sleep I'm scared my thoughts will haunt my dreams, and when I wake
We make mistakes
we take our second chance in stride We'll be fine
