I've always been
One step away from you
It was so boring
The world before you
Before I knew you

Day by day I've always thought
A way to say
What I think of you
If you could listen to it
It was such a ripoff
After I've lost track on you, I
Don't want to lose
My sight on you

And I was so in you
I could never stop
When you were gone
From my both eyes
And I was just back to normal
You have a something
That makes it so special

Step by step, I felt so close to you
I'm still away
From what I like the most
If you could care about it
It was always mistakes
That piled up in my mind, I
Don't want to lose
My mind on you

And I was so in you
I could never stop
When you were gone
From my both eyes
And I was just back to normal
You have a something
That makes it so special

You have magic in your eyes
They make life so bright, it's seems so right

And I've waited to see
What you hated of me
When you told me the truth
And looked me in my eyes
I was just back to normal
