I have stopped my engine from starting again
Yeah I was scared and couldn't dare to begin
I'm so tired and bored I need a rest whoa
Yeah I just cared of where I didn't want to go

I stay at home to stay away
Just anything will do, but you want today
I may be alone but did I ever say?

I don't have the courage
I lost everything ever since college
I need to learn to stay away
I'm soon fine, but not today
I've forgot how I need to behave
I've forgot now how can I be brave?

You have stopped my clock there to continue
Yeah an ugly image of me and you
You're so dull and gloomy and oh so sad and whoa
Yeah I want you to hug me but you'd just go

I stay at home to stay away
Just anything will do, but you want today
I may be alone but did I ever say?

I don't have the courage
I lost everything ever since college
I need to learn to stay away
I'm soon fine, but not today
I've forgot how I need to behave
I've forgot now how can I be brave?

We just can't ever seem, just a little more Sounds of gasoline isn't enough to remind me of before
We still want to dream, because then it's better Smells of deodorant, doesn't do anything, it just makes me sadder
I stay at home today
Just to push yesterday away
Anything, anything but you want today

I may be alone, yeah I'll stay at home
I stay at home to stay away

I don't have the courage
I lost everything ever since college
I need to learn to stay away
I'm soon fine, but not today
I've forgot how I need to behave
I've forgot now how can I be brave?
Tell me, I'll give you today, whoa
How do you be brave tell me how to behave
Or it's just that I stay at home today
