Today is to end
It's the worst I've ever had
I keep on depend
On someone nice like you, whoa

The price to hyperbolize
Has come much too late
It's hard to realize
How much you really hate

Today was another game
To fake eachother's shame
Cheer up others try to keep it the same
Leaving the truth, trying to overdraw
Believing to be the true, but something different I saw
Don't need to lie

Do you want to go on?
Or do you wanna fight all day and night
I don't feel these days fun
If you're making false compliments, whoa

Be nice and thoughtful
But couldn't be honest at all
The happiness now seems dull
And our time is ready to fall

Today was another game
To fake eachother's shame
Cheer up others, try to keep it the same
Leaving the truth, trying to overdraw
Believing to be true, but something different I saw
Don't need to lie

I'm starting to bleed from what I need
I need the truth, if you really want me
Now I know, atleast not to be tricked by what things seem
Cause' when time flows, you'll soon know this as bad dreams

Today is to end this nightmare
It's the worse I've ever had before
And today was another game
To fake eachother's shame
Cheer up others, try to keep it the same
Leaving the truth, trying to overdraw
Believing to be true, but something different I saw
Don't need to lie

Whoa (Don't need to lie)
Still don't need to lie, cause' I'm begging you to tell the truth
Don't need to ask why, cause' if you hate me, that's the
truth

Whoa (Don't need to lie)
Leaving the truth, still overdraw
Believing the truth, it's not what I saw

Whoa (Don't need to lie)
Still don't need to lie, cause' I'm begging you to tell the
truth
Don't need to ask why, cause' if you hate me, that's the
truth

Whoa (Don't need to lie)
Leaving the truth, still overdraw
Believing the truth, it's not what I saw
