Why did I lose you?
How did you hate me?
Whatever you think of me, I'm
Not going to forget those eyes
Never, never, never
Feeling this, with everlast

I can't picture
I can't treasure
But I can sure have the pleasure
Forget it all, what I say
I've given you all what I meant today

Why did I lose you?
How did you hate me?
Whatever you think of me, I'm
Not going to forget those eyes
Never, never, never
Feeling this, with everlast

Well forget my words
And I'll remember your eyes
That's all I want from you
We'll start again another time

I can't make things true
Like the lies I've made to you
But I can sure give what I can do
Forget it all, who I am
I'm not meant to be here (not to be here)

Why did I lose you?
How did you hate me?
Whatever you think of me, I'm
Not going to forget those eyes
Never, never, never
Feeling this, everlast
