Alone

Right there inside your home

You don't have your friends

They met their ends

Now where are your kins?

Restore their sins...

You're so cold

Oh so cold that I can't hold

Feel your heart ice up

Cause' you're freezing

It just takes the time, then it's easy

Cause' then you're sleeping

To never wake up (Fallin' apart, fallin' apart)

But I might be wrong

Alone

Tell me when you wanna' die

Behold, your eye,

The storm has arrived

Now who's left on your side?

You're so cold

Oh so cold that I can't hold

Feel your heart ice up

Cause' you're freezing

It just takes the time, then it's easy

Cause' then you're sleeping

To never wake up (Fallin' apart, fallin' apart)

But I might be wrong

Oh, so cold, I would never hold

Let me see the face you've sold to them

You could have been wrong (Fallin' apart, fallin' apart)

Forget about yesterday

And you'll see the pisses

All the mistakes
