Is this how I end, and is this how I'm meant?
Will anyone try to bend, any messages that I've sent?
They won't know when they find it
I knew too much, and I knew danger was in my back

Is there anybody out there, that understands what I say?
Will anyone come and save me, in another day?
They don't know but they've found it
I know too much, and I know danger follows me

Take me somewhere else (It's my fate)
I took an inch, now let me out (It's my hate)
Take me somewhere else (It's my fate)
It's just a dream, now wake up (And it's a part of me)

Is this how we are, and how did we end so numb?
Will anyone decode, or is it just that everyone else is dumb?
They have found it but they don't know
I knew so much, and danger is my only friend now

Take me somewhere else (It's my fate)
I took an inch, now let me out (It's my hate)
Take me somewhere else (It's my fate)
It's just a dream, now wake up (It's on my face)

Someone find me here, I'm right beside you
Someone find me here, I'm right beside you

No one will find me here, I'm right beside you
No one will find me here, I'm right beside you
I swear, no one will ever find me here, I'm beside you
