This is the rest
If you ever want to take it
This is the best
If you ever want to take it
Inside the crest
There's nothing else special, all black and white
Inside I test
There's nothing else I can do, all black and white
This is just me alone, this is my real image

I need to try before I give up
I need to try before I give up
But every time it ends as nothing
Every rhyme ends with nothing
I need to try, but I just give up
Just call me lazy
They call me mad, yeah I know I'm crazy
All the institutions and I'm sick of you
Call me boring, and I'm out for someone new

This is the rest
If you ever want to leave it
This is the best
If you ever want to believe it
Then why don't you test?
You know I'm lazy, but so are you
I'm always called crazy, looking for something new
And you throw out your crest
You believe you belong no where

I need to cry when I just give up
I need to cry when I just give up
But every time I fail and lose your attention
Every rhyme loses it's thunder and attention
I need to try, before I cry
Just call me a crybaby
I need to move, but I'm just lazy
All the institutions and I'm sick of you
Call me boring, and I'm out for someone new
