I stopped the clock
It wasn't ticking
Along with another day to start

I woke up with a frown
Just to try it
I knew there were no replies

There's nothing here, I'll just go there
To make up things, that I never cared
One is better than nothing, I told myself
But I need to say, I should say this once

What do I need to do, to make believe?
There's nothing, even you, to relieve
I might as just go back home, so I did
And I turned on the TV with a place to sit

So I sit there in the couch
Nothing to stop me
Yet nothing to start me, but days still past

I called your mom, just for fun
Maybe not, I was lonely
Yet I knew, there were no replies

There's nothing here, I'll just go there
I know it's severe, but I can't care
One is better than nothing, but I don't have the one
But I need to say, before this is all done

What do I need to do, to make believe?
There's nothing, even you, to relieve
I might as just go back home, so I did
And I turned on the TV with a place to sit

People just hate you when you grow up
They don't relate when you've grown up
It's not a fate, but what did I do wrong?
I can't stop the clock, it won't wait for me

I found out things weren't working

From few days before
There's nothing I will ask for

What do I need to do, to make believe?
There's nothing, even you, to relieve
I might as just go back home, so I did
And I turned on the TV with a place to sit
What do I need to do? You won't believe me
What do you think I should do? I know you won't reply
I won't make believe, lets just make this goodbye
