You come to me
There's plans behind, I can see
You ask for help
And I'm not given the chance to just say no

It's one and only
When you say yes to the first time
When you're lonely
But don't be tricked to the angel's plans
Why ask for help
If you can do this all alone
And I'll let you go
And you'll set me off from a puppet

Take confident steps
I know that you know that I'll say yes
My mind is kept
You call me a friend, but I'll suffer in the end

It's one and only
When you say yes to the first time
When you're lonely
But don't be tricked to the angel's plans
Why ask for help
If you can do this all alone
And I'll let you go
And you'll set me off from a puppet

Come right to see
But you don't mean those words for me
You've come too far
And yes my mind has turned bizarre

Come right to me
Yeah, but you never mean a word
We've come too far
And yes what's true will soon come apart

There's plans behind that I can see
There's plans behind that I can see
And all I need to say is no, I need to be me

It's one and only
When you say yes to the first time
When you're lonely
But don't be tricked to the angel's plans
Why ask for help
If you can do this all alone
And I'll let you go
And you'll set me off from a puppet

It's one and only
When you say yes to the first time
When you're lonely
But don't be tricked to the angel's plans
Why ask for help
If you can do this all alone
And I'll let you go
And you'll set me off from a puppet
