Floating in the air
Belonging just there
Being all famous
Having everyone's trust

Shining like those stars
Loosing all those scars
Appreciated from people
Making life simple

I want to be special
I want to be those stars
I want to be something else
Than myself
I want to be what you are
I want to be something better
I want to be a star
But those are dreams
I'd have a chance being them
Only in dreams

Having a great life
Without being scared of those knives
Having consistent souls
And your heart can't have holes

Being respected
The world is protected
Because of me
The best anyone could be

I want to be special
I want to be those stars
I want to be something else
Than myself
I want to be what you are
I want to be something better
I want to be a star
But those are dreams
I'd have a chance being them
Only in dreams

Oh, oh...
Oh, oh...
Oh, oh...
I want to be the star
I want to be better
I want this to be real
But it's only in dreams

Floating in the air
Belonging just there
Being all famous

Having it all real
Being so ideal
That no one can hate you
Your whole life through

Being so special
Never afraid to fall
Being away from
All the danger to come

Not knowing pain
With powers you can't explain
Never there to fear
Never having any tears

There to be thanked
With a life never blanked
Everyday will be perfect
Everyday'll be correct

I want to be special (Oh, oh...)
I want to be those star (Oh, oh...)
I want to be something else (Oh, oh...)
Than myself
I want to be what you are
I want to be something better
I want to be a star (Oh...)
But those are dreams
Only in dreams, you'll never know what it means
Only in dreams, only in dreams...
