Now that things are over, let's have more fun
I've seen enough, I don't need to see the sun
Let's see how it goes this time, whoa
Gonna' try and not get worried, we're done with this

Don't mind a little time off
Till' it breaks down the pace, can't hide it in your face

It's time for a party breakdown,
Clean the slate up before I come around
The party's now done, but will never restart
Cause' this is a party breakdown!

I know enough now, every rose has it's thorn
You hide your sins, now that's not how things go
How will come and how will it go, whoa
Maybe it's not the time yet, let's start another day

Don't mind a little time off
Till' it breaks down the pace, can't hide it in your face

It's time for a party breakdown,
Clean the slate up before I come around
The party's now done, but will never restart
Cause' this is a party breakdown!

What was the time, it went in a blink
Let's not wait for another day to sink
And carry on, carry on, like the wind
Carry on, carry on until the end

It's time for a party breakdown,
Clean the slate up before I come around
The party's now done, but will never restart
Cause' this is a party breakdown!

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Things have changed so much
How was it like when I was young?
Was it full of shame?
Well I've lost something to blame
But carry on, carry on until the end

It's time for a party breakdown,
Clean the slate up before I come around
The party's now done, but will never restart
Cause' this is a party breakdown!

Don't mind a little time off
Till' it breaks down the pace, can't hide it in your face
(No you can't, no you can't)
