I'm not anything perfect
So many things I still regret
I'm not so far, I can see you
So many things I wished I never knew
And even if I'm talking to someone gone
I can only say that you were my only one

Let me go from the memories
I don't want to stay, I just want to forget
I've found day by day, learning this was another regret
The flowers and pictures, I'll remember as you alive
You were my last treasure, now I need to find a way to survive

I lived with someone everyday
I looked down on whatever someone else will say
All the time I left you so alone
So many things, but I decided not to moan
And even if saying this is too late, and it's done
I can only say that you were my only one

Let me go from the memories
I don't want to stay, I just want to forget
I've found day by day, learning this was another regret
The flowers and pictures, I'll remember as you alive
You were my last treasure, now I need to find a way to
survive

I wanted to be perfect
I wanted to show, I wanted to change
But now I've lost the reason
I wanted to be strong
I wanted to show, but I guess I was wrong
But now I've got a reason
Now I can push myself away, from where we were I learned something new, not to depend on someone like you
That's the last thing, the last thing to keep
I won't try to seek, I will never try to seek Bringing up the pain, and I want to forget
All the things I learned, that I always regret

Let me go from the memories
I don't want to stay, I just want to forget
I've found day by day, learning this was another regret
The flowers and pictures, I'll remember as you alive
You were my last treasure, now I need to find a way to
survive

I'm not anything perfect
So many things I still regret
I might not ever become perfect
But I took one step, learning to forget
I don't ever want to give up
Even if I'm showing this to someone gone
I can say that you were my only one
I'm not anything perfect
But I guess someday I can show you
