There's nothing that I have left
I have no fame, I have no name
But I can take your blame
That's the only thing that I can do
Oh, I lost myself in a world with you
Everything happy, I want to stay here
Then we'll be together, until it disappears
It's me for you, that's all that I've ever knew

So let's play our game, now that I've known one thing
That I'm in shame, when I'm not under your wings
I'm always so breathless when I don't see you
I'm so careless, for when I have nothing to do
Cause' it's boring, when I'm not with you
It's simple, there's only one thing to do

Let's see where it flows this time
Let me, I need to run my one last rhyme
I can't bring it into my mind
That's the only thing that I can't do
Oh, I lost myself in a world without you
Everything has broke, I need to find a new place
I'll run to find you, look right behind just in case
It's me for you, that's all that I will not forget

So let's play our game, now that I've known one thing
That I'm in shame, when I'm not under your wings
I'm always so breathless when I don't see you
I'm so careless, for when I have nothing to do
Cause' it's boring, when I'm not with you
It's simple, there's only one thing to do
I want to stay, even just for today

But I'm not running to find you
Keep your blood for yourself
I need to find where I was before
Oh, I lost where I was, what I am
I've got no intention, but I need to blame
It's just a speculation, there is no shame
But now I see a shadow of doubt
Shadow of doubt to kill your image

It's so simple, it was so simple
You're so beautiful, you were so beautiful
You are the best, you were the best
That wouldn't change, before it comes
The shadow of doubt will kill your image
And embrace this time in gray
Nothing left, nothing to say

There's nothing that I have left
I have no fame, I have no name
But I can take your blame
That's the only thing that I can do
Oh, I lost myself in a world with you
Everything happy, I want to stay here
Then we'll be together, until it disappears
It's me for you, that's all that I've ever knew
