Hey Stella, this might not change anything
But hey well, I just wanna say what I think
Hey Stella, you know I saw a light in you
But hey well, when you came, I had something new

It's not a heartache just yet
Until the day we actually met
But hey well, I still wanna tell you what I think
Hey Stella, when I'm with you I don't wanna blink
I want to see you, just even for a second
And I always want to be in a beloved scene
Hey Stella, you know what I mean

Hey Stella, tonight might not be the best
But hey well, I'll try to leave out all the rest
Hey Stella, will you trust me just for now?
But hey well, I'd do anything, if I can show you how

I might misguide you to somewhere
And I know life is meant to be unfair
But hey well, I still wanna tell you what I think
Hey Stella, when I'm with you I don't wanna blink
I want to see you, just even for a second
And I always want to be in a beloved scene
Hey Stella, you know what I mean

I've been learning in this pain
That you can stop the rain
Hey Stella, bring me home tonight
Because Stella, it seems like you're the only one alright
But hey well, you're the one that brings the light
And I might be the one that takes it away
Until the day we actually met

Hey Stella, when I'm with you I don't wanna blink
I want to see you, just even for a second
And I always want to be in a beloved scene
Hey Stella, you know what I mean
Yeah, you know what I mean
