You wouldn't believe if I say this
A hundred days without you makes me miss
You won't want to know the truth
All my acts and moves, you're the root
I want to stay the same with you
As I try to teach you how to open your eyes
I learn the lesson, to wait for the time that flies

You'd take it rude but I'd stay right beside you
Just to get a touch and a feeling new
If I only had the strength to keep you tight
This silent time would have seemed so right

It's hard to say, I always want to stay awake
They call me insomniac, and I say that's fake
I couldn't stay, and I might be lying night and day
But I still want you to know, I want to keep you

When I say this, it'll hear so ridiculous
Another hundred days, I'll try not to focus
You won't want me to reach close to you
But all my tears fell as time flew
I want to stay right beside you
As I try to walk the same side on the road
This silence and your goodbyes leave me so cold

You'd take it rude but I'd stay right beside you
Just to get a touch and a feeling new
If I only had the strength to keep you tight
This silent time would have seemed so right

[illegible]

You'd take it rude but I'd stay right beside you
Just to get a touch and a feeling new
If I only had the strength to keep you tight
This silent time would have seemed so right

It's hard to say, I always want to stay awake
They call me insomniac, and I say that's fake
I couldn't stay, I might be lying night and day
But I still want you to know, I want to keep you

You won't want come near me
I don't have a clue how to make you see
You won't want to know this truth
But what I say, what I say today, you're the root

(Take me away to some where else)
Everyday and night takes away reasons to sleep
(Take me away to some where else)
Every hundred days the seasons change, and so will you
(Take me away to some where else)

You wouldn't believe if I say this
I don't really want any goodbye kiss
I had generous eyes, like I've passed it away
But I knew it's still not the time to say
If my wishes stay still too far
Cause' for a while I need to stay apart

You'd take it rude but I'd stay right beside you
Just to get a touch and a feeling new
If I only had the strength to keep you tight
This silent time would have seemed so right

It's hard to say, I always want to stay awake
They call me insomniac, and I say that's fake
I couldn't stay, I might be lying night and day
But I still want you to know, I want to keep you

You'd take it rude but I'd stay right beside you
Just to get a touch and a feeling new
If I only had the strength to keep you tight
This silent time would have seemed so right

It's hard to say, I always want to stay awake
They call me insomniac, and I say that's fake
I couldn't stay, I might be lying night and day
But I still want you to know, I want to keep you
(I can't take myself away)

You'd take it rude but I'd stay right beside you
Just to get a touch and a feeling new
If I only had the strength to keep you tight
This silent time would have seemed so right

It's hard to say, I always want to stay awake
They call me insomniac, and I say that's fake
I couldn't stay, I might be lying night and day
But I still want you to know, I want to keep you
Because you're mine to keep, and it's only you
