You gave up love, what you got
And you can't change that
You love her, she does not
And this is where things are at
Just don't wait, you know the most
You watch the sun, off the coast
But you know, it won't change

Love yourself, love what you got
You get what, you were given
Even if you don't believe in heaven
And take yourself, cause' you got a lot
Don't wanna see you cry

Yeah, she might be too high for you
Yeah, it's right all to give up on her
You're all stuck with what you got
And you can't change it, with your shots
Yeah, it's just a time to cut things up
Just believe that she's not yours
No more lies that give enforce
(X2)

You gave up, much too fast
You jumped off from where you reached at last
You don't call yourself a fool
But learn a lesson, and surrender before you drool
Yeah, you know this depends all on you
(Solo)
